Benefits of Summer Music Camps

There are several benefits in common with each type of Summer Music Camp: It reinforces music skills while having fun with peers at the same time; helps bridge the gap between summer and fall lessons; allows concentrated study of note-reading, rhythm, sight-reading, listening, playing in ensembles, composition, and learning more about music history than is possible in a normal lesson; also involves movement; music appreciation; and listening skills are developed; creativity is reinforced by composing; doing arts and crafts related to what we are learning; as well as writing original skits; it's a great opportunity to further your knowledge of music in a relaxed, fun atmosphere with friends! Last, but not least, It's LOTS OF FUN!

June 2-6 (Mon-Fri) Dynamic Music! Discovery Camp ~ (Rookies)

– This camp is for kids, ages 4-8, who have no experience and have never had formal music lessons. This is a general, fun music camp where we learn some piano and do a lot of music games, sing songs, act, move, and play rhythm instruments.

(Location: Kennedy Piano Studio)

(Minimum number of campers: 4 Maximum number of campers: 10)

June 17-20 (Mon-Fri) Dynamic Music! Piano Camp ~ Music of Folk Singers & Folk Groups ~ (Piano Only)

– This camp gives you a well-rounded experience overall with several activities, including playing different types of music games (such as board games and theory games) with the whole group, in small groups, or individually; playing in ensembles; and making up skits and stories. We will learn about folk singers and groups and their music, including but not limited to Peter, Paul, and Mary, The Mamas and the Papas, Joni Mitchell and Bob Dylan. On the last day of the camp, we present a recital for the parents & friends. This is an especially great camp for older students!
